MRS. SAM BOYD ALLEN

MRS. R. T. KENYON

HALLOWE'EN BANQUET BY HIGHLAND PARK BAPTISTS

ATTENDED BY HUNDRED AND FIFTY.

Enthusiastic Speeches by Prominent Churchmen Regarding New Church.

It was estimated that fully 150 gathered at the Junior High school at the Halloween entertainment given by the Highland Park Baptist church congregation Wednesday night. A song of praise was sung before the guests were seated.

Mrs. R. B. Allen, as chairman of the serving committee, was ably assisted by Mesdames Lester Duncan, B. T. Dettor, W. S. Cambeau, George Montgomery, Joe Smith, S. L. Farmer and A. O. Miller. In the center of the long table at intervals all along were baskets of yellow chrysanthemums and between these were processions of black and white spook faces. These, with the subdued lights, made the Halloween season very realistic.

An enjoyable program of violin and vocal selections and readings were rendered by Mrs. J. B. Haskins, Mrs. M. J. Mackbert, Miss Thelma Ruth McClure, Miss Gertrude Black, Miss Eppie Keene, Miss Irene Peak and Master Neal Peak.

Dr. J. B. Haskins presided as toastmaster and called on quite a number of men and women, who spoke on the many phases of church life, the keynote of all being the new church. Among the speakers were W. D. Powell, J. H. Etter, J. H. Horne, Mr. Royal Bartlett, and Mr. W. J. Glass. Mr. Browning, a new resident of Highland Park, formerly of Syracuse, N. Y., spoke interestingly of the Baptist church in his home town, which he and his wife had had part in building. John Landford moved a rising voice of thanks to the ladies who served. W. H. Wheeler, another new resident member, having recently moved here from Mississippi, was called on for the closing prayer.

GHOST PARTY AT CHURCH

Philathea Class of Riddsdale Methodist Entertains Saturday Night.

The Philathea class, of the Riddsdale Methodist church, south, will entertain Saturday evening with a Halloween party at the church. Ghosts and spooks and jack-o'-lanterns will add to the weird effect of the decorations. Refreshments will be served. As the church is equipping a kitchen, friends are requested to bring a cup and saucer or plate, old or new.

CHATTANOOGA HERO

Lieut. Hugh Thompson, son of Ex-Mayor T. C. Thompson, of this city, taken at the Polyclinic hospital in New York.

Lieut. Hugh Thompson Takes Automobile Ride

Recovered From Wound Received at St. Mihiel.

Sept. 12, 1918.

Lieut. Hugh Thompson, a Chattanooga boy, who is still confined at the Polyclinic hospital in New York, as a result of a wound sustained in his leg at St. Mihiel, Sept. 12, 1918, was able to take his first automobile ride the first part of this week. He writes his father, Ex-Mayor T. C. Thompson, that he went out to Yonkers and back to New York and stood the trip fine. Mr. Thompson states that he expects his son will be able to make a trip home Christmas.

The young Chattanooga hero lay flat of his back in hospitals in France, and New York, for months before he was able to sit up. It was first thought that it would become necessary for his leg to be amputated, however, Lieut. Thompson persisted, by refusing to have it done, and after returning to the states, the physicians in New York, after performing a major operation, found the core of a bullet in his leg. Since this was removed Lieut. Thompson has been steadily recovering and his friends here have been very much encouraged over his improvement.

He left Chattanooga for France, August, 1917, and landed there in September. He was first in training under French officers and was afterwards assigned to the Forty-second Division. He served with distinction throughout the war, receiving one minor wound prior to the serious one that sent him back from the lines in September, 1918.

PLAN HALLOWE'EN FETE

The young ladies of the Neely class of the St. Elmo M. E. Church will entertain with a Halloween party Thursday evening, Oct. 30, at the church. An attractive program has been arranged for the evening. Special music by the Chattanooga Mandolin orchestra.

LUNCHEON FOR MISS SADD

Miss Ava Wright Entertains at Her Home Today.

Miss Ava Wright was hostess of a luncheon today in honor of Miss Margaret Saddle, a popular bride-to-be. Covers were laid for Miss Saddle, Miss Rowena Sizer, Miss Louise Jewell, Miss Fatty Martin, Mrs. Brunsvick Lowe, Mrs. Sanburn Chamberlain, Mrs. Richard Sites, Mrs. Robert Wright, Jr.; Mrs. R. T. Wright and Miss Ava Wright.

MRS. ARNOLD HOSTESS

Entertains With Halloween Party at Her Home on Dodds Avenue.

Mrs. W. T. Arnold entertained on Wednesday evening at her home on Dodds avenue with a Halloween party. The house was decorated in autumn leaves, flowers and Halloween motifs. A witch was stationed at the door who met the guests and foretold their future. Later, Halloween games were played, after which an ice cream was served. About thirty-five guests enjoyed the entertainment.

The city board of missions of the Methodist church, South, meets Friday afternoon at 2:30 at the Wisdom Memorial church.

P. L. JOHNSTON LEAVES TODAY FOR OKLAHOMA

BAPTISTS GIVE FAREWELL SUPPER FOR HIM

At Which a Handsome Traveling Bag Is Presented by the Church.

The Teachers' tea at the First Baptist church Wednesday was in the nature of a farewell to P. L. Johnston, for two years past the valued and highly esteemed secretary of the church. The menu was more elaborate than usual, and was prepared by Circle No. 2. The table was adorned with the season's choicest flowers.

Dr. E. B. Wise, chairman of the board of deacons, acted as toastmaster, and in his very appropriate little talk expressed on behalf of the church, regrets at losing Mr. Johnston, who had not only wound himself into the hearts and lives of the people, but had made a most estimable secretary. The finances of the church had been increased 10 per cent. during his stay.

At the conclusion of Dr. Wise's talk, Albert H. Chapman, on behalf of the church, presented Mr. Johnston with a handsome traveling bag.

Mr. Johnston will leave Chattanooga this evening, going to Oklahoma City to accept a similar position with the First Baptist church of that city, of which Dr. H. A. Porter is pastor.

Mrs. Johnston and baby are in Macon, Ga., visiting her parents, Dr. and Mrs. E. J. Baker, and will join Mr. Johnston in the west as soon as he gets located. The best wishes of a large circle of church friends and all who have known them during their stay here, will follow them.

MISS CHANDLER HOSTESS

Gives Halloween Party at Crutchfield Springs Wednesday Night.

Miss Mary Ethel Chandler was hostess to a Halloween party Wednesday night in honor of Frank Hartz of New York, who is visiting relatives and friends in the city.

The party was given at Crutchfield Springs, and as the masked guests delighted from automobiles the night was veritably alive with spooks and witches. Gasoline torches added a glow to the scene, and later in the evening a bonfire was lighted, over which wafers and marshmallows were roasted and coffee steamed. A string band furnished music during the evening.

The guests present were, Mr. and Mrs. George Williams, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Gribben, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Senter, Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Risther, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Elliott, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hargis, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Crutchfield and Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Chandler.

MRS. KENNEY NAMED

To Write History of Suffrage Movement in Tennessee.

Mrs. John M. Kenney of Nashville, has been complimented by being asked to write the history of the suffrage movement in Tennessee, her appointment to this work coming from the Georgia branch of the Tennessee League of Women Voters, the organization formerly known as the Tennessee Woman's Suffrage association.

The history of the suffrage organization in this state will form a part of the history of the suffrage movement in the United States, which is to be compiled by Ida Husted Harper, the well-known writer and publicist.

Mrs. Kenney has been prominently identified with the suffrage activities of the women of this state in recent years, and her qualifications for writing the part Tennessee women have played in the nationwide fight for the franchise are given cordial recognition in the appointment that has been made for her. She expects to finish the history in January.

IN HONOR OF MISS SADD

Many Prenuptial Courtships Planned for Popular Bride-to-Be.

WEDDING OF NOTE IN ROME

Miss LaGrange Cotman Weds Cuyler A. Trussell, of Athens, Ga.

Rome, Ga., Oct. 30.—A wedding of widespread interest was that of Miss LaGrange Cotman and Cuyler A. Trussell, of Athens, formerly of Atlanta, which was solemnized at St. Peter's Episcopal church in Rome. Preceding the ceremony, Mr. Walter Coker sang "O Perfect Love." The wedding march was rendered by Mrs. Howard Hull, the church organist.

Messrs. Dick Denny and John Ramsey, Jr., acted as ushers and were the first to enter. Following in single file, Miss Sallie Blanch Trussell, Capt. James R. Cochran, Miss Virginia Harrison, Mr. Wylie Trussell, Miss Marguerite Watts, Mr. Luther Moultrie, Miss Bobbie Daniel, Mr. Walter Dupree.

The bridegroom wore lovely frocks of orchid georgette and carried arm baskets filled with white chrysanthemums and tea roses.

The maid of honor was Miss Good-

Denny, who wore yellow georgette and carried an arm bouquet of Sunset roses.

The bride, who entered with her father, Col. R. A. Denny, wore an exquisite gown of white ivory satin trimmed with pearl passementerie. Her veil was draped about the head in madonna style, being fastened to her hair with orange blossoms. She was met at the altar by the groom and his best man, Mr. Robert W. Spires, of Chattanooga.

Following the ceremony an elegant reception was held at the residence of the bride's parents, Col. and Mrs. R. A. Denny.

Mr. and Mrs. Trussell left on a late train for a wedding trip in the north and west, and upon their return they will reside in Athens, where Mr. Trussell is prominent in the business world and enjoys a wide popularity.

STANDEFER-GRIBBEN

The marriage of Miss Grace Gribben and George L. Standefer was solemnized Wednesday morning, at the rectory of St. Peter and Paul's Catholic church, the Rev. Father Francis T. Sullivan, officiating.

There were no attendants, and the ceremony was witnessed by only relatives. The bride wore a traveling suit of blue cloth, her hat was of black velvet, and accessories of brown.

After a southern wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Standefer will be at home in Chattanooga.

Mrs. Standefer is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Gribben, and received her education at the Notre Dame Catholic school.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Gribben, of Kentucky, came to Chattanooga to attend the wedding.

PERRY-M'PHERSON

Miss Bessie McPherson and John Perry were united in marriage Wednesday, Oct. 23, at the home of Rev. I. D. Steele. Only a few relatives witnessed the ceremony.

The young couple left for a wedding trip after which they will be at home in East Lake.

SCENE FROM COMEDY "BRINGING UP FATHER"

The latest play, founded on the popular comedy of "Bringing Up Father," the world-renowned cartoon created by George McManus, will be offering at the Blount theater Thursday, matinee and night. It bears the infers of "Bringing Up Father in Society." As might be inferred, the theme of the attraction revolves around the efforts of "Jiggs" Mahoney, "Maggie," "Daddy" and the rest of the Mahoney clan to break into the charmed circle, in justice to "Jiggs," who is better known as "Father," it may be chronicled right here and now that he is forced to "society" against his will. How he fares, how he meets and opposes the best laid plans of his wife, "Maggie," how he arouses laughter, mirth and paves the way to gaiety, joy, happiness and gladness unconfined in entertainingly described in three rollicking and side-splitting acts, each wedded to catchy and original music. The cast is a large and competent one, in which a chorus of pretty and vivacious young women predominate.
